Welcome from the Principal

Tracey Forman

Dear Prospective Applicant,

As the Principal of Homefield, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to you. I am delighted to share with you the many opportunities that the College provides to support people who have learning and communication disabilities to lead fulfilling lives and realise their potential as active citizens.

It's a fantastic time to join our team as we develop and grow the provisions we offer. Our students receive a range of individualised vocational education programmes based within local communities, and our committed staff team are supported so they also can achieve to their very best both personally and professionally.

Homefield is a vibrant and caring community with a commitment to ensuring students achieve their full potential, fostering a love of learning and building independent life skills.

We want all of our community to feel valued, happy and safe and we offer a range of professional development opportunities for our staff members to benefit from as well as ensuring that employee wellbeing is an integral part of day-to-day life.

Please look at our website and social media pages to get a flavour of what life at Homefield is all about. If you want to have an informal discussion about a vacancy, please e-mail us at hr@homefieldcollege.ac.uk and we will be in contact with you.

I look forward to hearing from you.
